Amendments to be Made

To Chinese Bill

Sibley Creates a Sensation in the House

By Denouncing Gen. Smith for the Orders Which He Issued

Concerning Manner in Which Samar Campaign Should be Conducted. Said Smith Disgraced the Uniform He Wore.

Washington, April 29.—After a brief discussion the senate agreed to the house amendments to the oleomargarine bill as passed by the senate. The measure now goes to the president for his signature. An effort was made by Mr. Teller (Colo.) to amend the measure so as to levy a tax of 10 per cent of the capital or assets on any butter trust that might be formed, but it was defeated. Mr. Simmons (N. C.) addressed the senate in opposition to the Philippine government bill. He urged that the Philippines ought to be turned over to the inhabitants of the islands. He denounced the "cruelties and barbarities" alleged to have been committed in the Philippines by the American army, and said that he felt like calling upon the great, brave and humane man now in the White House to probe these things to the bottom and at least to make them odious. The conference report on the Chinese exclusion bill was adopted.

In the House.

Washington, April 29.—Representative Sibley (Pa.) created something of a sensation in the house during the general debate on the agricultural appropriation bill by severely denouncing General Jacob H. Smith for the orders he issued in the Samar campaign. He declared that General Smith was a disgrace to the uniform he wore and expressed the hope that the president would strip him of his uniform within 24 hours. Mr. Sibley's speech was enthusiastically applauded by the Democrats and was received with some evidences of approval on the Republican side. The speech was considered more remarkable in that it came from a Republican who left the Democratic party on the issues raised by the Spanish war, and who since has been an ardent expansionist. Mr. Williams (Dem., Mass.) indorsed what Mr. Sibley said.

Requests For Information.

Washington, April 29.—Representative Burleson (Tex.) introduced a resolution calling on the secretary of war for information as to whether General Smith's order relative to the war in Samar was based on orders issued from Washington, and requesting the transmission of all orders issued from Washington relative to suppression of the insurrection in Samar. Representative Conry (Mass.) introduced another resolution calling for information along the same lines. It asked the secretary of war for information as to whether General Smith in issuing the alleged orders acted on his own responsibility.

Chinese Exclusion Law.

Washington, April 29.—The conferees on the Chinese exclusion bill reached a complete agreement on the bill. It strikes out that portion of the senate bill limiting the extension of all laws to the life of the present treaty and re-enacts them so far as is not inconsistent with the treaty obligations otherwise provided by law, and extends the laws to our island territories so far as applicable. It allows Chinese to enter for exposition purposes and retains the provision regarding certification in the Philippine Islands.

Son of Gen. McArthur Among the Injured—Boat Was on a Trial Trip.

Philadelphia, April 29.—The Maritime exchange received a dispatch from the Delaware Brakewater today, reporting that an explosion had occurred on the submarine torpedo boat Fulton. Five men were injured, one probably fatally. The Fulton sailed from New York yesterday for Hampton Roads, by the ocean course, intending to make tests on the way. Ultimately the boat was to go to Washington for inspection by congressmen and government officers.

The Fulton and consorts had barely reached Brakewater when the accident occurred. The injured are: Lieut. Arthur Mac Arthur, U. S. N.; Lieut. Oscar Kohn, Austrian navy; Henry Moore and C. B. Miner, engineers. Chas Bechsold, gunner. Lieutenant Arthur Mac Arthur is a son of the famous general of the same name, who commanded the American army in the Philippines. All are badly hurt.

SCALE

Of Wages Ratified at Last

Shaffer Wins

In the Adoption of the New Wage Scale

Which is Practically the Same as That Effective Last Year.

Organizer Flynn's Presence in the Conference Wanting to Reply to Prest. Shaffer, Creates Some Feeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 29.—This was a busy day for the Amalgamated Association. Two interesting events occurred. One was the partial ratification of the wage scale committee's report, and the other was the return of Thomas H. Flynn, the Federation of Labor organizer, to renew his request to be allowed the privilege of replying to President Shaffer's attack upon the organization of which Samuel Gompers is the head. The official report given out by the press committee was that the entire scale, as reported by the wage committee, had been ratified with a few "slight alterations." The ratification of scales is another victory for President Shaffer and his policy. The new scales as ratified are practically the same as those effective last year. They will be in force until July 1, 1903. No conference with manufacturers will be necessary after the convention. The scales with the independent mills will be signed by the district presidents.

Organizer Flynn's return has stirred up much ill feeling among the dominant Shaffer element, and it seems assured he will not be given the privilege of the floor to defend his chief. Gompers, who was wired for, has not yet responded, and Flynn deprecates his coming, though he is the man who Saturday sent the message advising the federation president to come. Flynn's friends threaten to hire a theater and give their alleged "inside history" of the Gompers-Shaffer controversy if the convention declines to grant a hearing.

Anthracite Situation.

New York, April 29.—President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America held several informal conferences with fellow members of the miners' delegation. He refused, however, to talk on the situation, further than to say that he had not found it necessary to communicate with the men in the anthracite regions. Representatives of the coal-carrying roads are unwilling to talk, but it was reported that the miners had decided to modify in several respects the demands originally made by them, and that the National Civic Federation expected a settlement of all matters in dispute by next week.

RE-ELECTION

Of Shaffer Expected, Despite Opposition.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 29. — The Amalgamated Association election of officers may be reached tomorrow morning. It is virtually certain that Shaffer will be re-elected in spite of the opposition of the Wheeling district, which wants to see Tige in that office.

Oakland, Cal., April 29.—The King's Daughters' home, a Catholic institution containing 40 inmates, was almost totally destroyed by fire, and two patients, William Bray, at one time a New York editor, and John H. The other patients, consisting of 25 elderly women and 15 men, were rescued. Financial loss, $25,000.

New York, April 29.—The condition of Archbishop Corrigan has greatly improved. His physicians report that the pneumonia is now thoroughly broken, and that the only danger now lies in the patient's weakened condition, owing to his long and severe illness. At Crowley, this county, much damage was done but there were no fatalities. Two thousand acres of growing crops were ruined. Bridges were washed away and all roads are impassable. Hail in places was from one to two feet deep.

WEEPING

Women Tell Tales of Starvation

While Former Millionaires are Penniless,

And a Thousand Census Bureau Clerks Set Up a Howl that is Indeed Most Pitiful.

Washington, April 29.—A thousand or more discharged clerks from the census bureau are making life miserable for the heads of the other government departments. Assistant secretary of the treasury, Alles, this morning said: "Weeping women come here, dragging their children with them and pour tales of starvation into my ears. Just this morning I gave a temporary job to an old man who a few years ago was a millionaire. He attended the Minneapolis convention in his special car. Some of the senators who were his guests on that trip came to me with him and begged me 'if there is a God in Israel' to give him something to do. He is now earning $2 per day. Other men have told me they have walked the streets because they had not the price of a bed.

At Yarahe met General Bartholome Maso, the candidate of the Democratic party for the presidency of Cuba, but who withdrew from the campaign and received an affectionate greeting from him. Alleged Boycott Forced.

London, April 29.—The Daily Express asserts positively that the shipping combine has forced the Canadian Pacific railroad to boycott the Beaver line of steamers by the threat that if the road failed to comply with the combine's demand no emigrant carried on any ship under the control of the combine would be allowed to travel over the Canadian Pacific. At a hurried meeting of the directors of the Canadian Pacific, continues the Daily Express, it was decided that it would be useless to try to fight the combine. As a result of this action the British agents of the Canadian Pacific now refuse to issue passages on steamers of the Beaver line.

Appeal For Destitute Farmers.

Kansas City, April 29.—The Star prints an appeal for money, food, clothing or food for stock from the drought-stricken farmers of Fulton county, Ark., on the Missouri line. The appeal is from Pilot, Ark., and is signed by J. A. Martin, president of the Myat relief society, who asks that all donations be addressed to that association at Mammoth Springs, Ark. The farmers who lost their crops during last year's terrific heat passed a strenuous winter, spring finding them practically destitute, and now they appeal for aid till the spring crop is in.

Hog-Killing in Germany.

Berlin, April 29.—A compilation of statistics from 48 of the leading cities of Germany shows that 361,248 fewer hogs were slaughtered in these cities during the year ended March 31 than in the preceding year. The Butchers' Gazette uses these figures to prove the statements made before the tariff committee of the Reichstag by Count Von Posadowsky-Wehner, the imperial secretary of state for the interior, that Germany is fully able to supply the home demand for meat.

Baltimore, April 29.—The seriousness of the condition of Congressman Cummings of New York who is a patient at the Church home and infirmary in this city, was augmented by the development of double pneumonia. NEW

Municipal Code Bill Placed

In the Hopper,

Making Something Over One Thousand.

No Chance of Adjournment Before the Latter Part of Next Month.

A New Conference Committee Has Been Appointed by the Speaker on the Archer Game Bill.

Columbus, O., April 29.—Although there is anxiety upon the part of the members of the legislature to get away, more bills were put in the hopper of the house. There are now a total of 1,070 bills in the house, less the few disposed of, and about 400 in the senate. The latest adjournment talk fixes the date at May 19.

Among the important bills introduced were the deficiency bill and a new municipal code bill. The code is an amended form of the old, retaining only the federal form of government plan and the merit system. The deficiency appropriations bill carries only about $34,000, principally for the payment of extraordinary expenses. The bill was advanced to its second and third readings under suspension of the rules and enacted at once.

The speaker appointed on the new conference committee on the Archer game bill Messrs. Jones of Lucas, Seese of Summit and Gear of Wyandot. On the committee to meet the guards at the penitentiary on the 66-hour bill Messrs. Painter of Wood, Thomas of Huron and Earhart of Richland were appointed.

Besides the two mentioned, only two general bills were introduced: By Mr. Beal, requiring that applicants before the examining board of pharmacy shall pass an examination in chemistry, botany, materia medica, toxocology and theory of pharmacy; by Mr. Brannock of Clermont, to legalize certificates issued for one year to teachers three months before Aug. 31 for the completion of a term of school.

In the Senate.

The session of the senate was characterized by the introduction of another ripper for the city of Cleveland. The bill was introduced by Senator Patterson of Pike county, and it provides for the appointment of a board of public service by the governor to take the place of the present board of city affairs, which was appointed by Mayor Johnson. This new board is given full control over all departments except the police and fire, and another bill is to be introduced which will place these two branches in the hands of the Republicans.

Senator Burnham of Dayton introduced a bill which is intended to help that city secure the location of Otterbein university there, which is now located at Westerville, near Columbus. The bill provides that three-fourths of the members of the present board present at a meeting may vote to change the location, while the present law requires a three-fourths vote of all the members elected. Senator Moore of Athens introduced a bill which allows municipalities to issue bonds for natural gas purposes. It is supplementary to the Longworth-Herrick general bond issue law for municipalities.

The senate committee on municipal corporations No. 2 informally agreed to allow the Columbus ripper providing for the appointment by the judges of the common pleas court of Franklin county of a bipartisan police and fire commission to die a peaceful death. The members of the committee learned that the bill meets with about as much opposition from Republicans as from Democrats.

The senate committee on finance took action which practically assures the adjournment of the legislature on May 12. The house resolution, providing for adjournment one week earlier than the date fixed by the committee was amended and signed by the eight members present. There is no doubt that the senate will adopt the resolution in its amended form.

QUIET

Week Among the Operators.

General Tone

Of Business is of the Healthy Sort,

And the Export Trade Has Been of a Kind that Promises Well.

The Van Wert Field Continues to Attract Attention and There is Something Doing in Territory in Other Counties.

Matters in oil affairs remain about as they were a week ago. Nothing of great importance has transpired in any quarter. The shipments of oil from the eastern fields are very large to date, and in the west the runs exceed the shipments for the month but not sufficient on the whole to keep stocks from being reduced considerably.

The general tone of business is healthy. The second advance that was looked for last week did not materialize, somewhat to the disappointment of a large percentage of the oil population. To a few who are hustling to gain production at as low a figure as possible the continued low level of the values is viewed with much favor. It is quite clear, however, that prices for producing properties are much higher than they were before the rise and trades can be made at a fair advance from former positions.

In the trading line some nice deals were made during the week as noted in this paper at the time. The Fort Orange transfer was the largest of the period.

In the foreign market there was little doing except in the line of supplying the needs of the established trade. The demand in some quarters was not as brisk as is usual at this season of the year though it cannot be said that there was weakening of values in the American article. Russian oil suffered somewhat in this direction.

The hope of foreign buyers and dealers generally has been fixed upon assurances tendered by the bear element in this country, that they would sooner or later be served with a good quality of refined oil made from the product of the great Texas gushers. It has begun to dawn upon their minds however, that in this particular, they have been misled.

No amount of guessing can properly estimate what is in store for the producers of oil in the future. The world has hardly begun to use petroleum as it should and will be used. The idea of selling a gallon of the stuff for two cents seems absolutely criminal. Yet operators are today breaking their necks, in the language of the journalistic artisan, to furnish the article at that price. Producers, however, must some day see the folly of spending all their efforts in the direction of bringing oil to the surface while neglecting the more important subject of markets and prices. The avenues for combinations of capital for the purpose of refining, storing and marketing were never more widely open than they appear at the present moment. But will they be entered and occupied? That is the question and judging from the records of the past it will not be answered in the affirmative.

The Van Wert Field.

The Van Wert county field continues to attract great attention. The last two wells completed, one west of the Williams well at Ohio City, and the other southeast. The former is known as the Medaugh well, owned by a Van Wert company. It is about two miles west, perhaps a little south of the Williams producer. It was shot on Thursday last and during the night flowed 50 barrels of oil. It is not as good a producer as the Williams by any means. Amos Harrington visited the well on Saturday and found only one tank full of oil and that of the one hundred barrel variety, and in a 250, there might have been 50 barrels. It looks more flashy than that other one referred to above. This is situated two and a half miles southeast of the Williams and is owned by the same parties. It is said to be making the best showing of any yet brought in in that section. It is located on the Heirs farm in section 34, Liberty township.

Nearly the whole country surrounding these ventures is now quite thoroughly leased up. In fact, whatever remains is either considered worthless, or is held at a price that would scare the ordinary fellow who has had his eye teeth cut in other localities. But there will be an enormous amount of drilling done in that region. Whether history is to repeat itself and after these new ventures are pumped for a time shall be abandoned is the question for the future to decide. The Manhattan Oil company had a sad experience in the region west and south of Ohio City, where they established a large pumping station and drilled any number of wells. All were in due time abandoned and the station removed to the state of Indiana.

It is true the price of oil is higher now than it was then and as a consequence, wells will be pumped and made to pay that at that time would make a failure of it.

The St. Marys Oil company shot a new well on the Thompson farm west of Elida last Friday. It will make an average producer for the field.

In Wood County.

In Wood county there was little done during the past week to excite the nerves of any one. Forest fires and wind storms caused considerable trouble and loss of production and of property. Even the wind storm of Saturday did much damage. Rigs were blown down in all parts of the fields. But it is said that the section east of Findlay suffered the most. It was a terrific gale and no mistake.

Noah Bowlus has his No. 25 on the Vanemman farm, in Cass township, in the sand with a good showing.

Outside Regions.

The reports that have reached us from the outer producing regions are not favorable to them on the whole. The last well at Boulder, known as the "Republic," has filled up 200 feet with oil at a depth of about 900 feet. While the well has caused intense excitement in the region surrounding it, the old oil man proffers a side shake of the head when questioned regarding possibilities. There is positively nothing in the well to warrant hope of its ever becoming more than a small stripper, and may never pay.

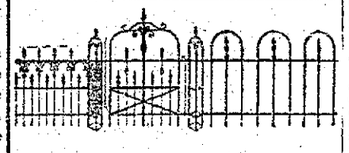

Experiments in Shooting.

Out in the section about three miles north of Williston, a company, composed of business men, farmers and others, have completed the drilling of a test well. A call was in for a shot last Thursday, and it went out on time and was properly placed in the hole where it belonged. As the well was full nearly to the top with water, the shooter advised that the element be removed to a point below the casing. As that would require considerable time, he left a go-devil with instructions touching its mission and the necessity of speedy action whenever the water reached a safe level. With the time arrived the devil was dispatched, but failed to perform its functions. The shot was not exploded. As there was no shooter nearer than Toledo, it was considered the proper thing to throw a joint of tubing down into the hole in order to force the devil, which had lodged some distance above the shot, to proceed to business. But instead of that, the devil was broken into two parts, one of which went on down but failed to explode the shot. Then another join of tubing a little longer than the first was sent on the same errand. This, too, failed. They then went to an old sawmill that remained at ease a short distance away and secured a piece of steel shafting ten feet long and three inches in diameter, hauled it over and hustled it down the hole, hoping to have it reach the firing head and completing the job. But it halted somewhere in the hole above and there it remains. The bottom of that well now has a large torpedo, two joints of tubing, part of a go-devil and a good chunk of a sawmill, all awaiting liberation. How that will be done is the next question. The torpedo company says that whenever the tubing and the sawmill are removed, it will proceed to explode the sleeper. There is talk of dumping 20 quarts on top of the whole and exploding it with a squib.—Toledo Times.

HAD ROOSEVELT IN HOLE.

How "Uncle Joe" Cannon Cornered the President.

President Roosevelt and "Uncle Joe" Cannon are engaged in a tug of war over the name which shall be used when reference is made to the building occupied by the president, says the Washington correspondent of the Pittsburg Dispatch. Mr. Roosevelt early in his administration decided that it should be called "White House," because that name was more distinctive than "executive mansion," inasmuch as the residence of the governor of every state in the Union is known as an executive mansion. When the committee on appropriations was considering the sundry civil bill, which contains the appropriation for the maintenance of the White House or executive mansion, Mr. Moody, who had just been appointed a member of the cabinet, reminded Mr. Cannon that President Roosevelt prefers the term "White House."

"He does, eh?" asked Cannon, peering at Moody over his spectacles. "Well, I have been putting 'executive mansion' in this bill for a good many years, and I am too old to change my habits. If the president objects to the wording of this bill, let him veto it."

Mr. Cannon had his way. He says he is not afraid that the president will veto the bill, because then the president's pantry might become empty.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Cold in Chest

Omega Oil

You hear a good deal of the great progress in medical science, but there hasn't been so much progress after all. The doctors have not been able to improve on many of the simple old remedies used during the last hundred years. Every mother knows that old-fashioned sweet oil is a good thing to rub on the nose, throat and chest for a cold, and a doctor can't prescribe anything better or safer except Omega Oil. This Oil does all that sweet oil can do, and besides that it contains other ingredients that check and cure a cold in a wonderfully short time. It can be used on children with perfect safety, as it does not blister. A bottle in the house all the time may save a life or a doctor's bill.

A NEW, SCIENTIFIC METHOD OF TREATMENT FOR

Diseases of Men and Women

The Nervous System.

The Arterial System.

THE PARIS FOOD AND CRAYON TREATMENT

Nature's Cure for Every Known (curable) Disease. A Fresh Lease of Life Given to Weak Men and Women.

PARIS FOOD TREATMENT. The skin of the body is a part of the great nervous system to which the mucous membrane and secreting glands belong. The outer layer is termed the cuticle, and the true skin beneath it is designated as the derma, in which are found the blood vessels and nerves. The outer surface of the skin contains numerous pores which readily absorb whatever is applied to the surface and also discharge the impurities from the system.

The Paris Food is fed to the blood and nerves through the pores of the skin. In this way it reaches the seat of the disease without passing into the stomach. The action of the Food manifests itself by means of an intense, but not unpleasant, warmth; it fills the body with nerve force, warms the blood, stimulates the circulation, and will restore the wasted organs to a normal condition. It is applied at night, and puts the user to sleep when every nerve and muscle is at rest. It is a harmless home treatment and acts like a mild electric current, invigorating and imparting vim and snap to the entire body. The curative effects are felt from the first application.

We want every man and woman who earnestly desires a cure to investigate our combined treatment. We invite in particular all who have tried without success; all whose cases have been abandoned by family physicians and so-called experts. It will be explained to you why you have not been cured, and it will be demonstrated to your entire satisfaction that you can be cured safely, quickly and permanently.

THE PARIS MEDICATED CRAYON

The Paris Medicated Crayon is made in many different shapes, sizes and formulæ. It is a combination of rare and valuable medicines, especially prepared to meet the requirements of each individual case. Physicians today realize the fact that medicines taken into the stomach cannot reach the seat of diseases of men. For the cure of Seminal Weakness, Varicocele, Stricture, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, Catarrhal or Mucous Discharges, Irritation and Enlargement of the Prostate Gland, Bladder and Urinary Disorders, this scientific method of treatment is priceless, and has proven itself to be the greatest boon to mankind yet discovered. We also cure Blood Poison, Catarrh, Deafness, Asthma, Consumption, Rheumatic, Heart, Skin, Stomach and Liver Diseases, Epileptic Fits, etc.

THE PARIS CRAYONS are inserted in the water passage upon retiring at night. They slip into position without the slightest effort or pain, requiring a short time to dissolve. In this way the medicine reaches the diseased parts and its action immediately begins, continuing until a permanent cure is effected. Diseases which have baffled other treatments are now being cured by this new, scientific method. Common sense tells us that a remedy applied directly to the seat of any disease must give the best results.

Various Items Gathered During the Day in South Lima.

Trio of Youngsters Who Suddenly Disappeared Have Been Located in an Indiana Town.

A man employed by the telephone company experienced a severe accident at the corner of Kibby and Main streets this morning. He was getting into a wagon, when the horse frightened at an approaching street car. Endeavoring to secure the lines which lay across the horses back, the man was thrown to the ground by the animal kicking. He fell beneath the vehicle, by which he was dragged some distance. The horse and wagon got in front of the street car, which was stopped just in time to avoid what might have been a serious affair. The man disengaged himself and rolled clear of the wagon and car. The horse ran some distance before it was caught. In its wild dash it crashed into several buggies, but not much damage resulted.

A Sun Dial.

Dr. J. E. Mell is the possessor of an antiquated sun dial which has been in his wife's family many years. It is a rare specimen of the original articles employed in ascertaining time. The doctor values it highly. He has it upon exhibit at his store where it is attracting much curiosity.

Runaways Located.

Arthur Bish, Kenneth Johnson and Robert Deihl, the juvenile trio that ran away from home last week, have been located at Peru, Ind. A vagrant from that place informed persons in south Lima of his meeting three Lima boys who answered the description of the lads whom an effort has been made to locate the past week. Authorities at Peru have been communicated with and it is believed the youths will be shortly returned to their homes. While the parents of the youngsters have suffered great anxiety during their absence, the Johnson boy's mother seems to be more alarmed than the others owing to the age of her son which is only thirteen years. She has worried terribly, several times being upon the verge of nervous prostration.

. . . . .Attended Anniversary.

Mrs. H. McMillen, of Broadway, has returned from a pleasant sojourn with relatives at St. Marys. During her visit she attended the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Botkins at St. Marys. The event was an elaborate affair largely attended.

Block Sold.

Mrs. Harrington, of Detroit, Mich., yesterday sold to John Boose, the business block on south Main street, occupied by J. D. Austin's store. It is quite probable some extensive improvements will be made upon the building.

An Operation.

Harry Young, of Broadway, has been taken to the city hospital, where he will submit to a surgical operation for a tumorous malady that has placed him in a precariously condition.

Church Social.

The ladies missionary society of the south Main street Presbyterian church will hold a business meeting and social at the home of Mrs. William Dobbins. An interesting and entertaining program has been arranged.

Some Improvements.

The official board of the south Lima Christian church has authorized some improvements in and about the church. Stone walks will be laid the length of the church property on east Kibby street, and south Central avenue. The church yard and that of the pastor's residence will be sodded and otherwise improved.

A New Fad.

Rev. Frederick Rupert, pastor of St. John's church, has inaugurated quite a pleasing innovation by having pictures of his church placed upon buttons, to be worn as photo buttons were formerly. The revival of the hobby in this form is a departure generally appreciated. Many orders for the buttons are being daily received.

DISTRICT MEETING.

A large representation from Solar lodge of Odd Fellows attended the district meeting at Elida last night. An enjoyable and beneficial time was enjoyed. The local attendants were favorably impressed by the hospitality accorded.

ONIONS DAMAGED.

Charles Day residing near McGuffey, was a business visitor in south Lima yesterday. He said the recent tempestuous winds had done great damage to crops upon the Selote marsh, especially to the onion growth, which was nearly entirely destroyed.

Personal Notice.

Mrs. F. E. Wood, of south Union street, is entertaining Mrs. Fannie Wood, of Virginia.

Mrs. Thomas Stanyer was unable to be at her store today, on account of sickness.

Mrs. Le Roy Wheeler, of east Kibby street, is confined to her home by sickness.

Prof. W. W. Weaver, of Bluffton, spent today with south Main street friends. Mr. Weaver, who was formerly an instructor in music at the Ada University, and later at the Bluffton college, is now conducting a private conservatory, proving both pleasant and profitable.

Mrs. Mitchell, of east Kibby street, has gone to Jackson, Mich., on account of the serious illness of a relative.

R. O. McClintock, of Second street, left yesterday for Ohio City, where he has taken a position.

A. Albert, of south Pine street, has begun the rebuilding of his store, recently destroyed by fire.

Mrs. Samuel Baugh, enroute home from Spencerville, to Youngstown, visited a few hours at J. C. Mack's, on south Central avenue, yesterday evening.

Mrs. Edward Miller, of Galion, was welcomed yesterday to the home of J. A. Fellows, of south Main street.

FOREST

Has $50,000 Ready for Champion Iron Works.

The town of Forest in the northeast corner of Hardin county is ready to give the Champion Iron Company $50,000 to locate there, according to the statement of Mr. Mayer, the banker. Such offers as these have forcibly reminded Kenton of what is necessary to do in order to keep the works and the town can better afford to double the bounds offered by Forest rather than have the big plant go elsewhere.

The committee of Kenton business men who have the matter in charge, feel confident of success and only await a definite statement from Mr. Carter to ascertain what will be required. The latter is quoted as saying that he doesn't demand from the people of Kenton an inducement to prevent the acceptance of offers from other cities. All that will be required is a sum sufficient, including the insurance to put the plant in operation again, but at the same time, now that it becomes necessary to rebuild, the company may decide that the facilities at Kenton are not equal to the demand.

Farmer Starts Goldfish Farm.

John Kline, a farmer near Winfield, Ill., will diversify crops in a new way, says the Chicago Evening Post. He intends to produce goldfish which he will sell for use in Chicago parks. Mr. Kline is building a reservoir near Glen Ellyn. The basin will be supplied from a well from which the water will be pumped by the use of a windmill. Kline will have a manager from Chicago, for whom he has already built a neat residence at his plant. It is claimed that there is a good demand for goldfish, and when the business is carried on by experienced hands it is turned to profit.

Supt. Miller stated that he was anxious to have one of the rooms in the south Elizabeth street building ready for occupancy by next Monday as he wished to get the children out of the colony as soon as possible. The contractor informed the board that he would have the room ready by the time required.

The text book committee was authorized to purchase a cheap edition of Macbeth for the use of the high school, that work of Shakespeare having been decided on for this term's reading.

Supt. Miller reported several other matters of interest to the board. The examination of teachers will hereafter include music. Those who feel far enough advanced may take the examination next Saturday at the regular teachers' examination, others may wait until fall, but all must pass the examination not later than next spring. The cadets have music as a regular course.

Attention was again called to the crowded condition of the schools, and Mr. Donahue advised the building of a two-room addition to the Shawnee building. Scholars from that vicinity have crowded into the east building until it is overflowing. Mr. Spyker suggested that something must be done soon to relieve the situation in the west end. The new addition to west Spring street building is full and the office room is being used. It is thought advisable to secure vacant lots for a future building in the direction of the college. These matters were placed in the hands of the building and repairs committee to report at the next meeting.

Mr. Prophet waited until most of the business was transacted before announcing the standing committees and then named the following:

Finance—Bates, Mrs. Vicary and McClain.

Building and Repairs—Mooney, Irish and Donahue.

Supplies—Spyker, Metheany and Donahue.

Text Books—Fredericks, Klatte and Prophet.

Teachers and Salaries—Irish, Mrs. Vicary and Metheany.

Law and Contracts—Klatte, Fenwick and Blattenberg.

Discipline—Donahue, Fenwick and Fredericks.

Sanitary—Blattenberg, Fredericks and Miss Disman.

A special committee to have charge of framing and distributing the pictures secured a year ago for the schools was also appointed and consists of Mrs. Vicary, Metheany and Klatte.

A number of pressing bills were allowed, including the salaries of teachers and janitors. The estimate of $1,000 was allowed the contractors who built the south Elizabeth street addition. Cantieny & Tuttle were paid $600 on an account of $802.20 for 49 closets furnished at the Shawnee and Franklin buildings.

Mr. Donahue asked for the purchase of 50 feet of hose for the Spring street building. Granted.

Mr. McClain moved that the woman janitor at the Jefferson street building be allowed her full salary of $30 in addition to what she had to pay for extra help during the time she was sick. The motion carried and the committee was ordered to find out what extra labor had been performed.

Board adjourned at 9 o'clock.

RAILROADS.

General Notes From the Local Lines.

L. E. & W. Telegraph Poles Burned at Findlay.

Number of Ft. Wayne Railroad Men Attended the Funeral of the Late M. C. Craig in This City Saturday.

Several small boys, while playing beneath the L.E. & W. depot platform at Findley, broke off the natural gas pipe and the gas escaped full vent for several hours. A lady in the waiting room was the first to discover the source of the leakage and every precaution was taken to prevent the approach of anyone with a light until the break had been repaired. The explosion, if it had occurred, would have been a terrific one.

ATTENDED THE FUNERAL.

J. C. Craig, S. P. Craig C. C. Craig, R. H. Craig and William Glenn, all Pennsylvania engineers but the first named, left this morning on Pennsylvania train No. 36 for Lima, Ohio, to attend the funeral of M. C. Craig, which occurred at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A number of other old Pennsylvania men intended to go to his funeral, but the very disagreeable weather and the news that the street car strike at Lima would limit the transportation facilities to and from the cemetery, caused them to change their minds and to remain at home.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

NOTES FROM FINDLAY.

Lineman James Porter, of the L. E. & W., arrived in the city this morning to replace the three poles burned by the fire at the Globe Window Glass house last night. The fire also damaged 183 feet of siding near the works which was the property of the road. This will be repaired in the course of a few days.

John W. Vogle's minstrels will arrive in the city May 7, over the Big Four. They will be carried out of the city by the L. E. & W. to Lima. The contract specifies thirty-three people, fifty pieces of scenery and a private car.

Passenger engine No. 23, fresh from the shops, passed through the city this morning, hauling the east bound passenger on the L. E. & W. The new engine is one of the most modern on the entire line and is slightly larger than those of the ordinary run now in use.

Local yard engine No. 95 will be taken to the shops at Lima tomorrow for overhauling and repairs by the local crew of the L. E. & W. yards. —Findlay Courier.

Mrs. D. Arnold, President German Woman's Club, Grand Pacific Hotel, Los Angeles, Cal., Relieved of a Tumor by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered four years ago with a tumor in my womb, and the doctors declared I must go to the hospital and undergo an operation, which I dreaded very much and hesitated to submit.

"My husband consulted an old friend who had studied medicine, although he was not a practising physician, and he said he believed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure me. That same day I took my first dose, and I kept it up faithfully until twelve bottles had been used, and not only did the tumor disappear, but my general health was very much improved and I had not felt so well since I was a young woman.

"As I have suffered no relapse since, and as I took no other medicine, I am sure that your Compound restored my health and I believe saved my life."—MRS. D. ARNOLD.

SONGSTER FROM CUBA.

Bright Plumaged Tomaquin Is a Rival For the Canary.

Army officers returning from Cuba have introduced a new variety of cage bird in the United States that is becoming quite the rage, says the Washington Post. This new cage bird is the "tomaquin," a curious little fellow, smaller than the canary, a fairly good songster and a bird of very brilliant plumage. The male is all the colors of the rainbow—indigo blue, scarlet, bright yellow, green, purple, black and white—while the plumage of the female runs through several shades of green, olive, yellow, buff, brown and black.

The first consignment of these birds, that for a century past have remained popular as cage birds among the Spaniards and Cubans, reached Washington a few days ago and found a ready sale. The bird is a native of Cuba and is not found outside that island.

Prison Beef Is Cheap Enough.

The great state of Missouri, as such, has no occasion to complain of the high price of beef, says the Kansas City Journal. It had no difficulty in contracting with one of the Kansas City packing houses the other day for the 700,000 pounds of beef it will require for feeding its prisoners in the penitentiary the coming year at $4.18 per hundred pounds. The competing figures were $5.13 and $6.14, respectively.

"STICK TO IT."

Geo. L. Heard, of High Tower, Ga., writes: "Eczema broke out on my baby covering his entire body. Under treatment of our family physician, he got worse as he could not sleep for the burning and itching. We used a box of "Banner Salve" on him and by the time it was gone he was well. The doctor seeing it was curing him, said, "Stick to it for it is doing him more good than anything I have done for him." For sale by H. F. Vortkamp, corner North and Main streets.

With beef selling at prices beyond reach and all provisions prodigiously dear, and various trusts responsible for these conditions, Senator Beveridge's explanation that the trusts harm nobody, but are a beneficent phase of modern economic development, will not fall upon very patient ears. The people are beginning to understand the trust proposition quite well without explanation of statesmen.

The average wage of the farm laborer in the United States in the year 1899 was $1.01 per day without board, or 77 cents per day with board. This does not go to show that any extraordinary part of the profit in raising live stock was absorbed by the farm hand. The value of the agricultural product per agricultural worker per year was $293. This does not show that the farming employer was getting an inordinate share for himself. The beef trust cannot shake its gory fingers at the farmers and say "ye did it." Whatever profit the farmers get as a result of their toil is ungrudged. They earn it and deserve it.

OUR NATIONAL DOMAIN.

Including our new possessions, the territory of the United States embraces 3,690,822 square miles, or an area greater than the territory of the Roman Empire under Caesar Augustus.

But still the United States is not at the head of the great territorial Powers, and ranks only fifth on the list. Great Britain comes first, with 11,288,277 square miles of territory; Russia second, with 8,644,100 square miles; China third, with 4,234,910 square miles, and France fourth, with 3,944,672 square miles.

Though the territory of Continental France embraces only 204,072 square miles, her colonial possessions aggregate 2,740,000 square miles, most of which are in Africa. Great Britain's island headquarters are not much larger than the state of Georgia, but her sway extends over Africa, India, Australia and Canada. China's territory is restricted to her vast Asiatic domain, while Russia's extends over the greater part of western Europe and embraces the whole of Siberia.

Our colonial possessions are comparatively small, but they are scattered over both hemispheres, and when added to our vast continental territory they give us an important increment of strength.

Director of the Mint Roberts is reported as expressing fear that the increased production of gold will "seriously disarrange the world's credit." It is said that he has announced his purpose to discourage the production of gold by refusing to recommend any more assay offices. Can it be that gold is likely to become so plentiful that it will be cheap? Will the financiers swing around to silver as the more stable and scarce metal, as they did between '50 and '60? What the financiers want is a dear dollar, and they will detest gold as much as they have detested silver if gold becomes so plentiful as to lessen the purchasing power of the dollar.

RESIGNATION

Of Lieut. Governor Nippert Effective May 2nd.

Columbus, April 29.—Lieut. Governor Nippert today placed his resignation in the hands of Governor Nash, to take effect May 2nd. He was at once appointed probate judge of Hamilton county to take effect on the same date. President pro tem Archer will become president of the senate before the close of the session and will be in the line of succession to the governorship.

COLUMBUS GROVE.

Convention of the Epworth League

To be Held in This Town Promises to be a Very Important Event.

COLUMBUS GROVE, O., April 29.—The annual convention of the Findlay district Epworth League, which will be held in this city on June 10th and 11th, is one of the most prominent affairs to come, in church circles. Prominent Methodist divines will participate in the program, which as yet has not been completed. There will be five sessions—the opening one on Tuesday afternoon, Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, afternoon and evening. Following the evening session of Tuesday, the visiting delegates will be tendered an informal reception, which will be followed with refreshments. This affair will be one of the social events of the season's calendar. The program on Wednesday will be interesting throughout, and the evening session will be addressed by a very prominent official of the Methodist church. The local chapter is preparing to give the visitors, who are expected to number about 200, a royal welcome.

Lack of a quorum prevented the meeting of the village council on last evening.

R. H. Lennox, who formerly resided here, was in the city yesterday, before leaving with his family for their future home in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dinsmore and children left this morning for Santiago, California, to make the far west their future residence. En route they will stop at several points of interest, and the trip will consume several weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Klink departed this morning for Findlay. Rev. Mr. Klink goes on to North Baltimore, where he was invited to attend the meeting of North Baltimore court, tribe of Ben Hur. Mrs. Klink will remain in Findlay, the guest of relatives, until her husband's return.

Evan Evans, nightwatchman in this city for ten years, who was succeeded by Simon Lewis, a week ago, has been secured by the Columbia Telephone Company, of Ottawa, to watch about their plant during the stillness of night. Mr. Evans is thoroughly reliable and the company takes a just pride in securing his services. He will not remove his family to Ottawa for a while, at least.

Columbus Grove will not be represented at the Northwestern Ohio oratorical contest to be held at Ottawa on May 9. The members of the class have expressed the opinion that they are too busy to give the matter of a preliminary contest the necessary time and attention. Although having entered, Columbus Grove has withdrawn.

Michael Trout has filed a cross petition in the divorce case in which he and his wife, Anna Josephine Trout, figure. The cross petition was filed Saturday, and makes some assertions of an extremely sensational nature. The case was carried over from the last term of common pleas court, at which time Mrs. Trout was granted alimony. The couple have been married about eight years, and have three beautiful children, ranging in ages from two to seven years.

Columbus Grove is to have a cigar manufacturing establishment. The work will be put out upon a small scale at first. Oliver Keefer, who moved here from Lima, will be in charge. The arrival of district revenue collector Thomas, of Toledo, is being anxiously awaited, after which, work will go on at a lively rate. Mr. Keefer has moved his family into the John F. Bogart property, opposite the school building. The enterprise will undoubtedly become a paying one, and in time the output may cover an extensive field.

A Handsome Gift.

Assistant Superintendent Shoemaker was tendered a pleasant surprise last night when he was called into the presence of his associates in the Masonic club rooms last night and presented with a handsome gold watch with chain and Masonic charm complete. This gift in the eve of Mr. Shoemaker's departure will make him feel doubly kind toward those with whom he has so long been a co-laborer.

AN AMERICAN POLICY.

Though Proposed by Democrats, It Cannot Be Called Partisan.

Consistent Americans will heartily indorse the Philippine policy agreed upon by the Democratic members of the senate committee on the Philippines and hope that its submission as a substitute for the un-American policy followed thus far may result in a return to traditional American principles, says the St. Louis Republic.

While the imperialist Republicans will doubtless assail the policy in question with all the ingenuity and bitterness at their command, the truth remains that it is unassailable as a typical and faithful American policy. It provides alike for the protection of American and other interests in the Philippines and for the independence of the islands under an American protectorate. This government rightfully claims the lands and waters necessary for naval, military and coaling stations and facilities for submarine cable terminals. The Filipino government established under this policy would be required to carry into effect the treaty obligations with Spain and looked to for the maintenance and protection of all rights and property acquired under the authority of the United States.

The policy now agreed upon by the Democratic members of the senate committee on the Philippines may not fairly be characterized as merely a partisan attempt to discredit the Republican policy. It is in effect the identical policy which was advocated by the late President Harrison and other eminent Republicans who did not relinquish their Americanism under the temptation of foreign conquest and distant dominion gained through the subjugation and government by force of alien peoples. More than one commanding Republican voice was lifted in the early days following the close of the war with Spain, urging that we retain only naval coaling stations in the Philippines and refuse to enter upon the perilous and sinful policy of empire inseparable from the permanent holding of the Philippines as an American colony.

Although it is true that this insistence upon the right has been stilled within the ranks of the Republican party, the right nevertheless remains the right. The Democratic policy now agreed upon in the United States senate is firmly founded on the right and is true to American principles. The people of this country favor such a policy. The Republican majority will doubtless refuse to be controlled, however, by the American desire for American dealing with the Philippines. The subsequent accounting with the people at the polls should convince the empire dreamers that imperialism is not a winning issue before the American people.

HONEST TARIFF REVISION.

Congressman Lewis Outlined the Position of the Democracy.

It is gratifying to note that Congressman Lewis in his speech in the house of representatives stated and stood upon the real tariff reform policy of the Democratic party. The Constitution's special from Washington says of the speech:

"He said he did not argue for free trade, but for the Democratic policy of revenue so adjusted as to work no harm to such interests as really need incidental protection, but he protested against the inordinate protection of tariff giants which have fattened and grown into great trusts under the operations of the Dingley rates."

That is a statement that rings true and clear to the trust ridden consumers of the entire country. It has been the success of the Republican party to make millions of humble citizens believe that "the foreigner pays the tax" and that a prohibitive tariff is the sole guarantee of living wages and profitable commerce in the home market for the home producer.

But the tremendous growth and the amazing wealth of the trusts, protection fed from the pockets of the masses, are facts that can no longer be concealed. The people who pay these pipers are scraping the scales from their eyes and taking a square look at the maws and tentacles of the octopuses that are disporting in the government tank and being fed from the lifeblood of the common people. The more the sweating consumer sees of them the less he likes them, and the time is about come to crystallize the common indignation.

The Democratic party, standing for an honest revision of the tariff, casting out foolish notions of free trade, conserving the interests of every legitimate industry that is purely American and promising a just equalization of the burdens of taxation, cannot be defeated! This plain American policy under wise leadership will bring about the downfall of the Republican party and the triumph of the party of the people.—Atlanta Constitution.

Illinois Should Be Democratic.

It is not surprising that Republican papers in handling Illinois politics do not underestimate the likelihood of the Democrats carrying the state next fall. The factional fight in Illinois has never been fiercer. The charges of bad faith and poor management so freely made against Republican officials by Republican officials create distrust of the organization as a whole. If half of the allegations which have been made by factionists are true Illinois should be in the Democratic column at the next election.—St. Louis Republic.

Costly Expansion of Trade.

The magnificent offer which the rival tobacco trusts are making to English consumers may perhaps instill in the mind of the American consumer a wonder how much he will have to pay to make them good.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Is the only Medicine that Can Promptly and Permanently Banish all Wasting and Dangerous Diseases.

It Restores Lost Health When Physicians Pronounce Your Case Incurable.

If, in springtime, sick people—young and old—act with promptness, wisdom and decision, suffering, agony, and misery would never be carried into the summer months.

To delay the work of banishing disease, regulating the nerves, purifying the blood, and restoring perfect digestion is a serious mistake.

When the blood is sluggish, impure, and poisoned, when the nerves system is unbalanced, when digestion is deranged, and the appetite poor and variable, be assured your condition is critical, and calls for instant attention before the summer months bring additional dangers.

At this time the use of Paine's Celery Compound will do a marvelous work for every run down, sick and diseased man and woman.

Its life giving work first commences with the blood, which is made clean and pure: then the nerves are quickly set in order, digestive vigor is fully restored, the appetite is made natural, sleep is refreshing, and the despondING heart is made light and joyous.

It is well to bear in mind that Paine's Celery Compound owes its origin to the most distinguished physician that this American continent ever produced, and his marvelous prescription is publicly indorsed by our best and ablest physicians.

If all sufferers who have been disappointed in the past will promptly start with Paine's Celery Compound, they will be astonished and delighted with which this wonderful remedy is able to call a halt to wasting and dangerous disease. It is now making tens of thousands well and strong and fitting them to enjoy the summer months, which, to the well and strong, are pleasurable and happy.

THE BEEF SITUATION.

Cause of Present High Price Explained by a Cattleman.

R. P. Bailey, a cattleman from Bailey, Ida., was in New York the other day. "I have been engaged in the business of raising, feeding, buying and selling cattle for thirty years," he said to a reporter of the New York Tribune. "Since I came east I have observed the clamor which some newspapers are making against the so called beef trust on the ground that it is to be blamed for the present high price of beef. I do not believe that there is any such trust. If there is, I am opposed to it on general principles, for I am a westerner. Nevertheless, give the devil his due, and don't paint him any blacker than he is. Why is the present price of beef so high? In the first place, for several years prior to 1896 the price of cattle was unusually low. Besides this, the encroachments of settlers and especially the enormous increase in the number of sheep caused a great many cattlemen to go out of business. From these and various other causes the stock of cattle in the country was very much reduced, while the great revival of industry which began in 1896 caused a great increase in the consumptive demand, with which the supply has never yet been able to catch up. On top of all this came the unprecedented failure of the corn crop of the west last year and the consequent high price of corn. Besides this, the steer himself before he ever tastes an ear of corn costs the feeder nearly twice as much as he used to in the 'halcyon days' of low prices. This I know by experience, for I sold steers at Omaha in December for $4.12 a hundred, and I sold the same kind and weight of steers at the same place a few days ago for $5.55. I handled cattle before the present dressed beef system came in vogue, and I learned by repeated experience that the big packers could and did pay more for beef on the hoof than the local butchers, and they are able to do so because they utilize the offal at a profit, all of which the butchers permitted to go to waste.

"The alleged beef trust gets abused by both sides. When cattle were cheap the farmers and ranchers insisted that the trust was to blame, while the consumers rejoiced in cheap meat. Now, when the pendulum has swung the other way, the consumers are blaming the trust, while the farmers and ranchers are rejoicing in getting good prices for their cattle, and in the meantime the corn raisers of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota, who happened to have a fair crop last year when other parts of the country had none, are the ones who are getting the most of the money. The truth of the whole matter, then, is that the present high price of beef is caused principally by the high price of corn consequent from the short crop of last year, and if there is a good crop of corn raised in the west this season the price of beef will decline to about the figures of last year and the year before."

Chairman Overly declared that neither candidate had received a sufficient number of votes to elect, eight being required, and ordered another ballot, the result being:

Slot Machines Sent to This City From St. Marys.

The slot machines which have been giving the city authorities considerable trouble for some time past, says a St. Marys paper, were all gathered up Saturday and shipped to the firm to whom they belong, at Lima. A representative of the firm called upon Mayor White and Marshal Sibert as soon as they were sworn in and asked permission to operate the machines in St. Marys. He was promptly informed that no such thing would be permitted and the machines were gathered up and taken away.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS GIVE OUT MUCH HEAT.

It is a general opinion that incandescent electric lamps give out comparatively small quantities of heat. Measurements show, however, that of the energy of the current only 6 per cent is turned into light; the other 94 per cent manifests itself as heat. Inflammable substances near incandescent lamps are readily ignited. If a six-candlepower lamp lighted by a current of 100 volts be immersed in a vessel containing 360 grams (10½ ounces) of water, it will bring the water to boiling point in an hour. Celluloid near such a lamp is inflamed in five minutes. These and other experiments of the sort direct attention to the necessity of care even with electric light. In some of the windows of Lima stores may be seen incandescent lights which appear to be in dangerous proximity to inflammable goods.

CORN

Was the Booty They Sought

But the Police

Interrupted the Game Suddenly.

Two Sacks of Grain Had Already Been Carried From the Crib

When the Bobbies Appeared on the Scene and the Scramble for Liberty Began—Two Suspects Arrested.

Two arrests that may develop into a very important capture were made shortly after 2 o'clock last night by night sergeant Bacome and patrolmen Armstrong & Fenstemaker. About the hour mentioned they received a 'phone message at the police station announcing that some one was trying to break into the ware room at the rear of Porter & Son's music store. They hastened to the ware room designated, but found everything quiet there, and began a search in the rear of all the business blocks in that vicinity. As they approached the rear of the Donze block, south of Spring street, officer Armstrong saw a man jump out of a granary and hasten away. A little later the officers found and arrested John Harrison and Henry Henderson, colored, on suspicion. Further investigation proved that Mr. Donze's granary had been broken into and two sacks of corn had been carried away and placed in the ware room at the rear of Porter & Son's store, where Harrison is employed. Other grain sacks were found, unfilled, indicating that the burglars had been frightened away before their work was finished. The two prisoners were locked up and have not yet been arraigned.

BIG BARN

And Contents Destroyed Near Wapak

Together With Out Buildings and Loss is Large.

Business is Booming in the Neighboring City, and the Moving Class is at a Disadvantage.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, April 29.—The large barn belonging to George Harter, a farmer living about three miles south of here, was totally destroyed by fire last night with all its contents. The barn had been recently constructed and was one of the largest in this vicinity. It contained a large quantity of grain and farming machinery and the loss will be several thousand dollars. When discovered, the fire had gained considerable headway, and as Mr. Harter had no way of fighting it, all he could do was to watch it burn. It communicated itself to nearby outbuildings which were also destroyed. The amount of insurance has not been learned.

THE CITY PROSPEROUS.

An unoccupied house, desirable for a residence, cannot now be found in in this city and there would be a good opening for some speculator who would build several cheap houses that would rent at seven to ten dollars per month. There is hardly a day that some one is not inquiring for a house and they are scarcely to be found at all. Every one has work and the factories are now in position to use more hands, who of course, would want to live in the corporation, but cannot find a place for a home.

MATTERS IN COURT.

Lola Hinton, one of the heirs of John Hodson, deceased, has brought suit in commen pleas court for the partition of 80 acres of land situated in section 8, township 5. The defendants are Cyrus Hodson, Clara C Myers, Ella McDonald, Ellie Hodson, Anna J. Carry, children, Elizabeth Hodson, widow, and Charles Hodson, age 2, and Orley Hodson, aged 15, grandchildren.

Real estate conveyances:—Caroline Keller to Charles Keller $500; south part lot 34, north addition to St. Marys. A. B. Mayer et al., to Pauline Pitthan, $600; lot 1059 Wapakoneta. S. W. Emrick to Ella Emrick, $250; 4 acres, Union township. Leana Terwilliger quit claim to P. L. Terwilliger, $275; 122 acres, Duchouque township. Emanuel Watters to Clara B. Stanton, $650; lot 445 and east ½ of 226; Armstrong's S. D., St. Marys.

ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Several people from this place attended the entertainment given by the pupils of the Fryburg school at that place last night. The entertainment consisted of recitations, orations, dialogues and instrumental music and was highly appreciated by the large audience.

Miss Nora Brockert, who is in the Good Samaritan hospital at Cincinnati, and Mrs. Mathias Schraegel, in the German Deaconess hospital, same city, are reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Michael Craft, north of here, is very sick and has been unable to be out for some time.

Ammond Brown, R. C. Stueve and Joseph Bix were visiting St. Marys friends Sunday evening.

L. E. Noonas made a flying trip to Laramie where he has business interests.

The Irving club was very delightfully entertained last evening by Mrs. Lyman N. Means.

The dancing class will meet this evening at the Debonair club rooms.

Gus Kohler, of Lima, who is with the Western Ohio, was in town last evening.

Mrs. Katherine Alter, of Forest, O., is the guest of her son, Perry Alter and wife.

Mrs. W. E. Potter is the guest of friends and relatives at Chicago.

Members of the Alumni of the Wapakoneta high school will meet Thursday evening for the purpose of reorganization. If successful three classes will be taken in this year.

JULIAN RALPH ON METHUEN

War Correspondent's Estimate of British General.

Julian Ralph, who was with General Methuen in the South African campaign from Belmont to Magersfontein, thus writes of him in the New York Mail and Express:

Poor Paul Methuen! as the guardsmen all call him. His bad luck might naturally have been expected.

His fault in war was that he lost his head in battle. He raged up and down the field, he almost always forgot his artillery, he kept his aids dashing all over the place while he roared exclamations, orders and comments enough to confuse a whole army, could it have heard him. It was said that one reason for this was that Lord Methuen read his Bible all night before each battle, preferring that to healthful sleep. Another great fault of his was that he would not accept advice or information even from his best subordinates or heed any news that contradicted his own impressions or disturbed his plans. By reason of this he marched into the Boer trap at Modder, refusing to hear that the Boers were hiding there and insisting that he knew there were no more than 300 Boers in that whole region, the enemy being massed at Spytfontein, which place, alas, he never reached.

He had a melancholy interview with Cecil Rhodes after the slaughter at Magersfontein.

"I am discredited," said Methuen. "I have lost all that I worked for and more besides."

"Nonsense!" said the empire builder. "This is no time to cry over spilled milk. This is the moment when you must play some bold move. Start at once for Mafeking and relieve the place. I was in your plight after the Jameson raid. But did I sit down and bemoan my fate? No. I jumped into Rhodesia and put down a rebellion there in a fight in which I risked everything. People forgot about the raid and instead of thinking of me as a failure saw in me only success. Now is your time. Before the people at home have time to call you a failure be up and doing something bold to give them better thoughts of you."

But Lord Methuen made excuses. He had no horses. There was no water on the route. He stayed in Kimberley until he was ordered away. Rumors to his disadvantage spread all over Africa and reached England. It was said that his brain was touched.

Of late he has redeemed himself. For nearly two years and a half he has done his best, and his fellow citizens at home have learned how brave he is, even if he is not all else that a general should be.

The man who is a failure is apt to think that success is accidental.

WATTERSON REMINISCENT.

Louisville Journalist Recalls an Early Experience.

Forty-two years ago Henry Watterson was a correspondent sitting in the press gallery of the senate. The other day, says the Washington Post, Mr. Watterson again entered the senate gallery. "Is there room here," he asked laughingly, "for a tramp editor?"

In the days when Mr. Watterson wrote "pieces" from Washington he was the representative here of the Philadelphia Press. There is only one other man living who was on the staff of The Press at that time. "In those days," said Mr. Watterson as he indulged in a few reminiscences, "Horace Greeley used to do a great deal of work in this gallery. I do not remember that the elder Bennett actually worked here, although of course he used to come over to Washington.

"The pot was boiling very furiously then. It was just before the war. There was never any lack of something to write about. We used to send most of our matter by mail, only using the telegraph to supplement the written letters."

The Best Cold Cure

is one your can take without interruption to business. One that does not affect the head or hearing like the continued use of quinine. One that cures speedily and leaves you feeling fresh and clear-headed. Such a one is Krause's Cold Cure. Price 25c. Sold by W. M. Melville, old post office corner.

De Tanque—"What do you think of the trouble out in the Philippines over the water cure?" O'Soaque—"I don't know just what the water cure is, but it must be awful."

A VALUABLE MEDICINE

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitency in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one dollar to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by W. M. Melville, old post office corner.

OIL KING'S SECRETARIES.

Rockefeller Has Nine, Four With Black Hair and Mustaches.

John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in the world and also one of the hardest of workers, says the New York World, has so many private secretaries that the casual callers at the offices of the Standard Oil company feel as if they have been through a crystal maze after they get away.

Recently a newspaper man who had been granted the rare privilege of quoting Mr. Rockefeller on a business proposition wanted to be sure that a note would reach Mr. Rockefeller personally.

"Let me see Mr. Rockefeller's private secretary," he said to the colored doorkeeper.

"Which one, sir?" was the quick reply. "He has nine private secreturies, sir."

"I want to see the young gentleman with black hair and a small mustache."

"There are four of them, sir, with black hair and small mustaches."

The caller gave it up. He is not yet sure that his note ever reached either Mr. Rockefeller or the right private secretary.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jersyman. After two applications of this Remedy, I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old post office corner.

Coronation Clubs In London.

It is a sign of the times to find that coronation clubs are being instituted in the busiest of London districts, says The Tatler. The cue has been taken up by clothiers and linen drapers of the poorer parts. By entering at once and punctually paying sixpence or so a week either a man or woman can insure new garments for wear on the eventful day of the approaching ceremonial. Some one or two have a provisional rule to the effect that should a member desire to withdraw from the club they are at liberty to do so and have the privilege of securing goods to the amount they have already subscribed, but no cash will be returned.

MONEY HOT TEMPERED.

Previous Altercations In Which the Senator Has Figured Recalled.

The fracas in which Senator Money of Mississippi figured the other morning at Washington recalls at the capital among those who are discussing it the other occasions on which he has exhibited his hot temper, says the New York Evening Post. Several years ago in the house committee on naval affairs he got into an altercation with Mr. Hall of Missouri, also a Democrat, in which it was alleged that Money gave him the lie. Hall threw an inkstand, which struck Money on the head with considerable force, necessitating his being taken into another committee room for repairs.

On another occasion he came near exchanging blows with Senator Wellington over the latter's allegations to the effect that the senators who went to Cuba to investigate conditions there were hired to do so by the New York Journal. As Money was one of the Hearst party, he asked Wellington to specify what he meant, with results that a challenge was offered on the floor of the senate.

Mr. Money is sixty-two years old and has been in public life at Washington, with slight interruptions, since 1877.

NEW RAILWAY RECORD

Burlington Train Does Some Speedy Running.

NINETY-NINE MILES AN HOUR.

Details of Flight of an Engine and Nine Cars Which Covered 14.8 Miles In Nine Minutes. Rate Being 98.66 Miles an Hour—Passengers Hold Watches and Verify Conductor's Report.

The report of a run of fifteen miles at the rate of nearly 100 miles an hour, which came to headquarters the other day from the western division of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, was so startling that it was discredited by the Chicago officials and a detailed report called for.

The result is the following report from Conductor G. H. Burns, which established a new world's record for runs of fourteen miles and over, the nearest approach to it being the run of the Lehigh Valley Black Diamond express in April, 1897, when 43.96 miles were made at an average rate of eighty miles an hour.

Conductor Burns says: "Train No. 6 left Denver for Chicago March 24 ten minutes late, having to wait for a through California car from the D. and R. G. railway.

"A heavy wind prevailed to Akron, 112 miles from Denver, which put us out from Akron thirty minutes late. No special instructions were given as to speed, because it is customary when late to run from Akron to Wray, a distance of fifty-four miles, at the rate of seventy to seventy-five miles an hour. We passed Eckley, thirty-nine miles east of Akron, running at seventy-five miles an hour. Between Eckley and Wray, a distance of 14.8 miles, I was in the observation car. In the car were several gentlemen talking about the run, Mr. Arthur Johnson of Denver, Mr. Wells Atlet of Los Angeles and H. C. Bush, traffic manager of the Colorado Midland railway, and Mr. Foley of Omaha.

"We passed Eckley at 7:36 p. m., all hands holding watches corroborating. It seemed so short when the whistle was blown that Mr. Johnson remarked, speaking of the engineer, 'Oh, well, he is not doing so much as we thought he might.' Mr. Johnson believed we had only reached Robb, a distance of 6.1 miles from Eckley, but at that moment the train dashed over a well known bridge between whistling post and depot. Then I got up and said, 'Gentlemen, we are at Wray, and you have ridden 14.8 miles faster than was ever made before.' We had made the distance in exactly nine minutes, or at the rate of 98.66 miles an hour.

"I then went to the other end of the train, where Mr. Lindsay of Pittsburg, manager for Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and a party of seventeen were occupying special car Grassmere. Mr. Lindsay was on the platform and when I told him of the record said: 'Well, that was a terrific burst of speed. I thought we were flying.'"

The train consisted of engine, mail car, baggage car, two reclining chair cars, special car Grassmere, three sleeping cars and a dining car, nine cars in all. It was the eastbound fast express for Chicago, the reverse of the famous train westbound, the Burlington's No. 1, fast express Chicago to Denver.

The Brave Young Canadian.

The name of the young Canadian hero who, refusing to surrender to the Boers the other day in South Africa, fought until his ammunition was exhausted, then smashed his rifle and died, was Charles Napier Evans of Port Hope. It deserves to be writ large on the scroll of fame, says the Ottawa (Canada) Citizen. Before he enlisted as a trooper of the king he was a young Canadian schoolmaster. Both his Christian names and surname would indicate that he came of good fighting stock, which certainly did not suffer deterioration in being transplanted to Canada.

SPRING GARDENING TIPS.

In planning the new garden leave plenty of room for spreading. Peonies, for instance, will double themselves before long.

Plan and choose colors carefully. Plenty of color is desirable, but contradictory colors running rampant detract from fine effects.

Rubber gloves are fine for the hands, but not for the plants. Unless of the softest and most pliable variety they should be removed when handling roots or flowers.

Avoid straight lines as much as possible. There is no straight line in nature. It is for this reason that groups and masses are so much better than formal or set beds.

Water the ground thoroughly when the springing plants seem to need it, but be gentle and do not use hydrant water. Baby flowers are easily chilled and broken.

Hardy roses should be set out early. Early planting means early blooming as a rule. But it is well to wait until all danger of frost is over, and protection should be provided for all chilly nights.

The garden pinks are among the most satisfactory of the old fashioned flowers coming into renewed favor. They bloom plentifully, are fine in shape, size and color, and they come again cheerfully year after year.

Well started hollyhocks will bloom this season if the plants purchased are old enough. Make sure of this before buying. Nothing could possibly please a flower or color lover better than a row or mass of these simple and yet charming beauties.—Chicago Tribune.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

The mother smiles at the childish game, and doesn't realize that it is a game she as a woman has perhaps played for a great many years.

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness and had given up all hopes of ever being well again," writes Mrs. Harry A. Brown, of Orono, Penobscot Co., Me. "Had doctored with four different doctors within four months, and instead of getting better was growing weaker all the time. I decided to try your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' as I had heard of the many cures resulting from their use. I bought five bottles and felt so much better after taking them that I kept on until I am as well as ever in my life, and to Dr. Pierce all the praise is due. I cannot say enough in favor of his medicines. Before I began taking your medicines I only weighed one hundred and twenty pounds. I now weigh one hundred and sixty pounds. I gained forty pounds in six months. I shall doctor no more with home doctors, as it is only waste of money. I am now in perfect health, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the muddy complexion.

Woman's World

A PIONEER LECTURER.

The Strenuous Career of the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell.

The dean of the women lecturers of the United States is Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell. She made her first appearance on the platform in 1846, antedating any of the pioneers now living. In 1847, in company with Lucy Stone, she conducted a discussion in the presence of a professor and the senior class of Oberlin college and that year prepared an exegesis giving a new interpretation to St. Paul's teaching concerning woman. In 1848, when Mrs. Stanton called the first women's rights convention, Miss Brown had nearly completed a year of the regular theological course with a class of men and one other woman, Lettice Smith Holmes.

Miss Brown, after her theological studies were completed, was ordained a preacher by the Congregational church of South Butler, N. Y., but later, becoming dissatisfied with the theological teachings of that church, she joined the Unitarian church. In 1856 Miss Brown was married to Mr. Samuel C. Blackwell, and she is the mother of several daughters.

Mr. Blackwell is the author of several interesting books on sociological and scientific subjects. Until about 1860 Mrs. Blackwell made frequent lecturing trips with Miss Anthony and has never given up during the forty-nine years since she made her first public speech either pulpit or platform work.

The Girl of Fifteen.

The great thing for a young girl to know is that she doesn't know anything. All which life teaches is to come. She has heard much talk, read a few books, looked out of wondering eyes upon the great world, but she has not had a chance to do anything, and until one actually enters into the activities of life one can know nothing of realities.

It is true that the schoolgirl has been brought into contact with active young minds and with teachers and instructors. She is learning something about human nature, something about the play of forces good and bad in the society she happens to be a part of; but, unable to compare, to judge, to reason closely, of necessity she remains ignorant of the real, living, working world.

When a girl has the sense to realize exactly the place she occupies in the social order she is a most happy girl. Content to be herself, leaving the management of things to older and wiser persons, looking on and learning as she goes, joyous, hopeful, helpful and gay, there is nothing in all nature so beautiful and sweet as this kind of a girl of fifteen. While she defers to the will and advice of her parents in all things, this girl begins to reflect, to reason and compare, and thus she learns as she goes on her way. Later on experience becomes her teacher, and all that she observes now will be translated into what she can understand by experience.—Ada C. Sweet in Woman's Home Companion.

Small Waists.

Now, of course I am expected to say that a small waist is ugly; but, on the contrary, I think that a small waist is beautiful, writes Ethelwyn Wetherald in Good Housekeeping; not unnaturally small, not grotesquely and ridiculously small, as those of fashion plates always are, but with the natural smallness of an erect, healthy, full chested woman. To attain a beautiful, natural slenderness one needs not to compress the waist, but to develop the shoulders and chest and to restrain and direct the appetite, so that the stomach is not filled with indigestible food which bloats and distends the waist. A little "bag of bones" with a twenty inch waist is a revolting spectacle. The same bag of bones flattened out into the similitude of a bed slat is only a little less repellent. A huge woman who can with difficulty achieve any waist at all is not attractive, but the firm fleshed girl with strong arms, solid shoulders, full chest and a twenty-six inch waist has a magnificent figure, admired by men and women. If she marries, she will have healthy children. If she remains unmarried, she is abundantly able to take care of herself. Her motto is not "Health before beauty," but "Health and beauty before ruinous fashions."

Harmony In Dress.

It is in the harmony of the details that the Frenchwoman excels. Through paying attention to the minutiæ of her toilet she has acquired the reputation of being the best dressed and most tasteful woman in the world.

Whatever note she strikes in her costume, be this subdued or dominant, is repeated here and there in vest or ribbon or muff or gloves or umbrella or petticoat, so that the whole effect is harmonious and appears to have been carefully thought out.

In buying a new hat it is an important point to select one that can be worn with as many of one's visiting gowns as possible, for it is false economy to buy headgear that, however becoming in itself and however cheap, is in violent disagreement with the contents of one's wardrobe.

If either in color or style it is unsuited to one's costume in general, it must lie neglected in its box or purchase of an outfit to match i necessitated.

A hat too magnificent to match everyday wear is often "a white elephant" to a girl who has few opportunities for donning it and who bou it simply because she fell in love with its beauty and taste and never pau to consider whether it were suitabl her circumstances or not.

The Pigeon Toed Girl.

For the girl who is pigeon toed th is need for sympathy. Generally is not allowed to remain long in ha ignorance of the tendency she has "walk each way toward Sunday." takes long practice and patient endeavor to overcome the pigeon toed defect, for the fault is partly in the bones. Usually the pigeon toed person is knockkneed.

Dancing is one of the best methods of correcting the habit of walking pigeon toed, but dancing alone will not suffice. A resolute, persistent effort to keep the feet straight and to walk correctly is the surest method of reaching the perfect style.

As most of the girls who walk pigeon toed are strong, healthy, good tempered and willing to accept advice, the chances are that more improvement in this class will be noticed in this respect than in any other as a natural result of the adoption of the shorter skirt.

The Useful Screen.

There are always rooms in one's house having corners which for utilitarian or artistic purposes require screening. People of moderate means may by the exercise of a little ingenuity evolve something original in the way of a screen at very small cost. Frames may be had at any furniture shop and the covering done at home. Colored canvas or burlap makes a good covering. For the nursery or playroom the screen may be decorated with colored prints or flowers, birds, quaint Kate Greenaway children or any of the subjects which attract the little folk. Screens for other rooms may have favorite prints, such as copies of famous masterpieces, framed in the panels.

Lima Beans.

Of all the dried bean family none is better than the lima. To cook wash them thoroughly, soak over night in cold water enough to cover them, then simmer very slowly for two or three hours, until perfectly tender. Do not cook till they are broken. Season with salt, white pepper and butter, with a little cream. What is left may be made into a delicious soup by putting them through a sieve and adding hot milk enough to give the desired quantity; thicken slightly with a little butter stirred into flour.

Dressing Case Cover.

A handsome cover for a dressing case may be made of fine flowered blue and white organdie, with blue china silk for a lining. Any other color can be used that will harmonize with the decorations of the room for which it is intended. A four inch ruffle with a narrow hem should outline the four sides of the cover. Head the ruffle with a ruching of blue ribbon and tack dainty bows of the ribbon at the corners.

Tall Clocks.

Tall clocks of fumed oak or other wood similarly tinted are a good investment and aside from holiday times can generally be purchased for a reasonable sum in the specialty houses. The fittings of these clocks are of brass, and the quaint timepieces by reason of their simplicity harmonize most effectively with the generality of hall or dining room furnishings.

White Woodwork.

White woodwork and furniture can be beautifully cleaned with whiting. Wring a flannel cloth from hot water, dip in whiting and rub well to remove all stains, then wash off the whiting with clean warm water and dry with a soft cloth. Always rub with the grain of the wood.

Women and Dressing.

Max O'Rell in his latest book says that of all the women in Europe and America the German are the worst dressed, the French the best, the Americans the smartest. The German women are covered, the English clothed, the Americans arrayed and the French dressed.

Mrs. Alice Meynell, the famous English poet and essayist, was declared by Coventry Patmore before his death to be the greatest woman poet since Sappho.

When a stain is produced by lemon juice or any other acid, nothing is so effectual as ammonia in neutralizing and thus removing it.

Green blinds are said to be the most suitable for bedrooms and red the most injurious.

Speaking of the automobile, Lord Kelvin, the eminent English scientist, said to a reporter of the New York Commercial Advertiser:

"Of course locomotorism has 'come to stay,' as the jargon of the day puts it. And London of all places ought to welcome it. Engineer Cliff Harper Fatally Injured at Roachton This Morning.

Struck in the Head by a Mail Crane and Died at Perrysburg Two Hours After the Accident Happened.

Another popular railroad man has had his life suddenly snuffed out by one of the many dangerous agents which surround the occupation of the trainmen.

The sad news flashed over the wires this morning that engineer Cliff Harper, who had been promoted to that position on the C H & D a year ago had been seriously hurt and two hours later came a second message that he was dead. It was a shock to a wide acquaintance, as Cliff Harper was born and raised in Lima and had grown in the good graces of a host of friends both in and out of railroad circles. He had in his make up that degree of companionship which makes and fastens a life long claim on friendship, and among the men with whom he has been thrown in the discharge of his duties there can be heard only the highest tributes and expressions of tender regard. The sympathy also of the community is extended to the grief stricken wife and parents of the deceased whose cup of sorrow runneth over.

THE ACCIDENT

Struck By a Mail Crane While Leaning From the Cab.

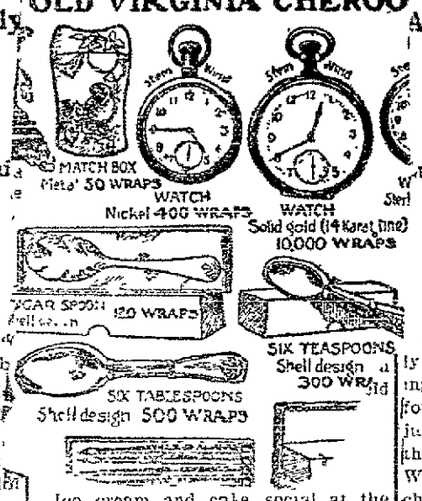

Engineer Harper and Fireman Holland with engine 320 were north bound with an extra freight and when nearing Roueton, 12 miles south of Toledo, Engineer Harper, who was leaning well out of the cab window was struck a terrific blow on the arm of a mail crane and knocked senseless to the floor of the cab. Fireman Holland pulled the train with all speed to Perrysburg, two miles further north and the injured man was given immediate attention by physicians. His injuries were pronounced fatal, but he lingered for two hours from 10:20 the time of the accident until 12:20.

His wife was visiting at Tontogany and when the sad news was conveyed to her a complete collapse followed. She was too ill after regaining consciousness to go to Perrysburg and telegraphed to have her mother, Mrs. J. R. Moore, of this city, and Mrs. Phelps, another relative sent on the first train.

Bartley Harper father of the deceased, himself an old-time engineer, left in response to the first message and will take charge of the remains which will be brought to Lima for burial.

The deceased leaves a wife, and one son, and in addition to his immediate family a fond father and mother and two sisters are left to mourn the tragic end of a son and brother. Mrs. Harper is with her daughter-in-law at

CASES

Laid Out for Month of May.

Another Batch

Of Civil Actions Assigned for Trial

And the Criminal Docket Calls for But a Single Prisoner.

Luke Gahrety will Answer to the Charge of Burglary Committed at Delphos May 12.

Judge Cunningham took up the early part of the morning yesterday, calling the docket, and has assigned work for several weeks ahead. The petit jury was presented with its first case this morning, the style of which is Wm. S. Morris vs. Farmers' Merchants' bank, of Jackson Center.

New Assignment.

In addition to the first assignment of cases which are to run through this week and next, Judge Cunningham has assigned work that will carry the term up to the first of June. The fifth week of court begins Monday, May 12, when the only criminal case on the docket will be called viz the state of Ohio vs. Luke Gaherty, indicted for burglarizing a Clover Leaf car at Delphos. Following in order will be the appended list of civil cases:

New York Granite Company vs. A. J. Owens Henry Lauby vs. Detroit Southern R. R. Co., Elmina E. Lauby vs. same Tuesday, May 13; Geo. B. Himes vs. Lake Erie R. R. Co. Wednesday, May 14: Julia Shull vs. Geo. Van Buskirk, Thursday, May 15: Samuel Dunlap vs. Geo. Carmen, et al., Friday, May 16: Valentine Heil vs. J. C. Thompson, Saturday, May 17.

Sixth week—Geo. Enright, an infant, vs. Lima Electric Railway Co., Monday, May 19; Geo. H. Wood vs. John T. Stoner, Thomas & Hover vs. A. C. Baker, Tuesday, May 20.

Seventh week—Emerson Sherman vs. Lima Electric Railway Co., Monday, May 26; Joseph Wustner vs. C. H. & D. R. R. Co., Tuesday, May 27. Wm. T. McHenry vs. Juliette M. Ginter, Marion O. Resler vs. Ella L. Burden, Wednesday, May 28, J. B. Livingston, et al. vs. August P. Fritz, Thursday, May 29.

Gaherty's Defense.

The only criminal case left of those indicted by the grand jury is set for trial Monday, May 12, when Luke Gaherty, who pleaded not guilty to robbing a Clover Leaf car at Delphos will be given a hearing. Gaherty will be defended by Howard Williamson and sets up the plea that he ran on several fellows who were looting the car and they gave him a suit of clothes to keep still.

A Stubborn Case.

The case of William B. Morris vs. The Farmers & Merchants bank of Jackson Center, is on its second day of trial, and there are so many close questions connected with it that half the time is taken up by objections and rulings of the court. There has seldom been a more stubbornly fought case in the courts, as it is now having its third hearing before a jury and has twice been in the circuit court. Each time a verdict has been returned in favor of the defendant by the jury and as promptly set aside by the higher court.

The controversy is over a $1500 note which was made in favor of J. W. Rush and Wm. B. Morris was one of the sureties, his name being signed by his son with the father's consent. The note, however, which Mr. Morris had his signature attached to was destroyed and a new one drawn with George Hall, of Logan county as a second surety. Mr. Morris declares he never authorized his name to be signed to this second note and has fought the payment. Rush failed to meet the note and was afterwards sent to the penitentiary for embezzling funds of which he was the custodian. Hall has paid the note to the bank and one claim of the defendant is that the claim has already been satisfied.

Court Briefs.

The arraignment of Frank Polser was postponed today on account of Judge Cunningham not caring to interfere with the jury case now on trial, in which Judge Armstrong is presiding. Polser will probably appear tomorrow.

Deputy Sheriff Summers finds himself swamped with work which accummulated during his absence and it will require several days to catch up.

Mrs. Louisa Hoberhouer, who was adjudged insane several days ago, has been admitted to the asylum and was taken to Toledo this morning by Sheriff Barr.

The commissioners received and passed on the usual budget of bills today.

Harry Hammond, of the Hammond Bridge Company, of Toledo, was here on business with the commissioners today. The company has several pieces of work under way in the county.

WEARY

And Heavy Laden She Passed Unto Rest,

And Death to Her Was Only Relief from Pain.

Mrs. Anna M. Madigan, After a Long Illness, Passed From the Midst of Sorrowing Relatives and Friends.

Mrs. Anna M., the beloved wife of Joseph M. Madigan, passed to rest yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at her late home, 731 north Main street, after a long and wearisome illness, from lung trouble. Although her death was not unexpected, it is nevertheless a great shock to her devoted family and to her many warm friends.

Mrs. Madigan, prior to her marriage, was Miss Anna Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn now deceased. She was born in Kalida, Ohio, February 22nd, 1868, and came to this city with her parents when quite young. In her girlhood days she was possessed of a charming and lovable nature which endeared her to her many companions and admirers. She was as large-souled as she was large-hearted. With her quick sympathy and diffusive sweetness and sunniness of character, she won many hearts. Full of trust and always faithful to God, her noble life merited the beautiful and peaceful death which was granted her. She lived a life of unostentatious but shining virtue and her memory will live in the hearts that knew, and loved her. She was an example of the best type of refined Christian womanhood.

Her marriage to Mr. Madigan occurred at St. Rose church on January 19, 1892, and to them were born four children, all of whom with the exception of little Eleanor, who died at the age of four months, together with the sorrowing husband and father are left to mourn the loss of a fond mother and a devoted wife. The children who survive are: Muriel aged eight years, Harold, aged five, and Joseph aged one year. The deceased is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. T. J. Mullen, of 524 south West street, and Miss Margaret Dunn, who has made her home with the deceased and one brother, Wm. B. Dunn, the north Main street tobacconist. Preceding her to the other world were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn, one sister, Miss Julia Dunn and two brothers, John Dunn, who was wounded in the battle of Santiago in the Spanish American war, and James Dunn who was an efficient employe of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company's offices in this city, up to the time of his death a few years ago. The bereaved husband, who is employed as a bookkeeper for the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, has the sincere sympathy of his wide circle of friends in this his hour of sorrow. The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock from St. Rose church. The interment will take place in Gethsemani cemetery.

PURTSCHER

Property on Wayne Street Sold Today.

An important real estate deal has been closed whereby W. H. Mattingly the north Main street undertaker and C. J. Connell the liverman, become the owners of the Purtscher homestead on east Wayne street. The purchasers of this valuable piece of property will, as soon as they gain possession of the place, erect a large livery and feed stable. The front of the building facing Wayne street, will be converted into an undertaking establishment, which will be occupied by Mr. Mattingly. The livery and feed stable will be occupied by Henry & Connell, who are compelled to vacate their present quarters on account of the erection of the Renz block, which extends back and absorbs the site now occupied by that firm. The consideration was $4500.

TESTS

To be Made on the Poor Farm

For a Basin

To Form the Bed of the New Reservoir.

Permission Granted Water Works Trustees by Commissioners.

The Land Required is Not on the Market But a Price of $200 Per Acre Will be Demanded.

The water works trustees met the county commissioners this morning and made their first request which is supposed to lead to a proposition for the purchase of part of the infirmary farm for the location of the new reservoir.

The commissioners expected to be asked to fix a price but the only demand made by President Stevens was the right to make tests of the ground. Much, if not everything, will depend upon what kind of a foundation is found beneath the soil, and if a gravel bed is turned up, the location would be unfit for the purpose intended. It is the opinion of the commissioners, or at least one, that such a foundation will be found but it can only be learned by doing a little probing.

The request was granted it being understood that the water works board pay for any damage caused to the growing crop of wheat on the property belonging to the infirmary.

According to the plans decided upon by the committee 65 acres of the infirmary farm will be required to locate the new reservoir, and it cuts into the best land belonging to the poor farm. The commissioners have no desire to sell it, but realize that condemnation proceedings can be instituted if necessary. The land is valued at $200 per acre and if the tests now to be made insure the kind of a basin necessary, that price will be asked by the commissioners. Whether or not it will be paid remains for the future to develop.

THE IDLER.

Findlayites Must Quit Smoking.

A dispatch from Findlay says:

"An unprecedented action for municipalities was adopted at the meeting of the city council here last night. A resolution was introduced providing that hereafter the streets of the city shall be sprayed with crude oil instead of water.

"The plan has been tried with great success by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in New Jersey. It is both practical and inexpensive especially so in Findlay's relation to the oil field."

Mr. Overly a Good Chairman.

The Republican members of the city council made an excellent selection when they chose C. M. Overly for chairman. The successor to Mr. Davis in the chair had to be a man of ability to keep up the standard established by the Sixth ward's senior member and in Mr. Overly the council found the right man. In addition, the genial railroader is a gentleman in every sense that the word implies and his friends are proud of the recognition he has received at the hands of his fellow councilmen.
